Customer Reviews

My girls (ages 3 and 6) have been in love with the new Sofia the First Series on Disney Junior since it came out. We were thrilled to see that they were starting to release some paperback books and we pre-ordered the first three books (The Royal Slumber Party, Sofia Makes a Friend and Welcome to Royal Prep) as soon as we could. They arrived a day before the release date from and we read all three of them that night as a family for their bedtime stories. They were all a big hit. We have already pre-ordered several more that will be released over the next few months."Sofia Makes a Friend" is a cute and fun story. Sofia and her royal family are having some visitors and they bring their new pet, a baby unicorn named Pearl. Sofia, Amber and James are excited to watch her and have fun playing with her. Unfortunately, Pearl the baby unicorn is quite mischievous and causes all kinds of problems from eating flowers from the garden to jumping in the fountain and just won't cooperate with what the kids want to do. James and Amber say that they don't like watching Pearl which makes her sad when she overhears. Sofia comes to her defense and uses her powers of speaking to animals to find out what Pearl likes. In the end, this makes all the difference and the kids start having all kinds of fun and they learn a valuable lesson about how you should treat your guests. The inside back cover of the book has a fitting "Princess Lesson" that states "A true princess always makes her guests feel at home." Overall, this book is really fun with great artwork on high quality glossy paper. It has a nice happy ending and teaches a valuable lesson.
