Love this book and the whole series! I'm using them with my five year old as an introduction to continents. It fits very nicely with our Montessori program - all the books have a similar format & are simple. If you want this for someone who already knows what/where the continents are and their very basic differences, though, this will NOT be the book for you. Its short and sweet. Again, perfect for kindergarten.

This is a great book for the younger kiddos. I was debating between this one and Bridgestone Books. Both are great, but this is ideal for PreK-K. I purchased each for all of the continents and am very happy with them.

These books are wonderful for early elementary students. So many times non-fiction is too easy or too hard. This series has just the right amount of text per page to make them great for read-alouds with my kindergarten class.

This is not really a book. It is more like a brochure or pamphlet. I don't think it was worth even $4.50.

I used this book to help teach a class on geography. Children enjoyed the pictures and the fun facts.
