Customer Reviews

Got this book for my younger brother and he loves it! Perfect for the little hockey fan and Spongebob fans alike. Easy read and very fun! Anyone starting out reading harder books will have no problem reading this.

Spongebob's Slap Shot is a book about Spongebob playing hockey. At first Spongebob is sweeping. He shoots a ball of paper into a garbage can and gets it in. Then he made it onto a hockey team. Then Patrick helped Spongebob get ready for the game. But if you want to hear the rest, you have to read the book. My favorite part is when Patrick makes Spongebob shoot with a really heavy stick. It is my favorite part because it is really funny. I think people who like hockey would like this book because this book is based on hockey. People who like Spongebob would like this book, too, because the book is all about Spongebob. So if you want to read something funny about Spongebob using a heavy stick, go out and get this book!

I am 8 years old and I liked this book a lot. I like SpongeBob and I like hockey too.

I ordered this book for my grandson. He loves Spongebob and hockey. It is not a literary work of art, but it has Spongebob appeal and is worth reading. In this story, Spongebob is fooled into thinking he has been signed on a top hockey team. He does practice hard and learns that competition even between friends can be fun. This book held my grandson's attention and has become one of the books his younger cousins ask him to read to them! Definitely positive activity.

It is just a fun book that will inspire your little hockey player to read. I'm not a huge Spongebob fan but this book is awesome!
