Deny Yourself: The Atoning Command Of Yom Kippur

Synopsis

Yom Kippur... the holiest day on Israel's calendar. In Scripture, it is a day of sacrifice; in Judaism, renunciation. But the Day of Atonement is meant to be far more profound--far more excruciating--than any mere traditional observance or ceremony. Rather, it is a day of humility, affliction and death--a day of disowning, separation and abandonment... of ourselves. In an impassioned, piercing exhortation, Messianic Jewish author and teacher Kevin Geoffrey presents the Scriptural mandate for both the holiest day of the year and the daily life for Messiah's disciples: deny yourself. Taken to heart, this message will not only change the way you view Yom Kippur, but will radically alter the course of your life. Read this challenging word at the risk of completely losing yourself--and then gaining your life anew in Yeshua!

"He who has found his life will lose it, and he who has lost his life for My sake will find it." Matthew 10:39

Great book. A must read for all believers.

A very accurate account and interpretation of this High Holiday. Very relevant for anyone who calls themselves a believer, and makes very clear that conduct must be in line with confession. No exceptions. I found this inspiring and motivating.

This book is only for the messianic want to be Jews, it is not written for or about Jewish traditions. I am appalled how the word "we" is used as if their history goes beyond the few short years that this religion has existed. To be honest, even with an open mind it is so fancifully written I couldn't get past chapter one
