Customer Reviews

Wish I had this when I was a teen! And when my kids were teens! Now I'll just give it to Moms of teens. What a fantastic "little book"! Trying to find a way to get through to your daughter about modesty without being preachy? This helps! The author has a conversation with girls, doesn't talk at them. A+

I notice that my grand daughter has changed her way of dressing

This book barely discusses what to wear and is rather a book talking about the 'Good Lord' and Jesus. It is SUPER Christian and basically says that you should wear modest clothing to be a good Christian and really truly is not a book on what to wear at all. I had to delete it off my Kindle it was so over the top and nothing like what I'd anticipated in a book with that title.
