Customer Reviews

My son is a HUGE fan of Troy Cummings and the Notebook of Doom series. They are hard to find as I have only seen them sold at his school book fairs once a year. They are also $5 a piece so I enjoyed the little bit of a discount that I got. These are great mystery style chapter books for beginners. They really engage the reader which is important for a young child. They aren't too big as to discourage them from wanting to read yet they aren't too childish either. I highly recommend the Notebook of Doom series for any child that likes to read fiction books about monsters and monster fighters.

I ordered these books for my son for Christmas. They arrived well packaged and undamaged. Fast shipping which was nice. He loves these books! I have not read them but our son read one to my husband and he said they were really fun books. Our son is 9 and hates to read! He is an excellent reader but would rather play video games all day if we would let him. For him to ask for the whole set and to see him re-reading the ones from school tells me they must be pretty awesome books.

These are great books to make my son want to read instead of video games. They are really cute and has more than four words on each page. I have been watching him read these and he will sit down and be occupied for a few hours with these books.

This series of books is truly one of the best. My 5 and 7 year old get straight into the story, love the characters, examine the illustrations, and are not only engaged but find the reading level to be challenging and accessible. This is just one series in the Branches collection and each title brings its own charm and story. We love them and are certain you will too.

For some reason, my 9-year-old son REALLY liked this series. These books finally made him WANT to read. That desire has reverberated for months and he's really enjoying reading more now. Congratulations to the author!

He loves this series, and we pre-order, then eagerly await until it is released. He finished this one in two sittings, and can't wait to read the next when... when it's released! Highly recommended for young readers.

My 2nd grade son is in love with the notebook of doom series. This is the first time i have had him ask me to pre-order him a book and offered to give me money. He reads the books alone and outloud to his 5 year brother and myself. We are all loving the adventures of Alexander, Rip & Nikki. He devoured this book in about 3 hours. The 8th is already ordered. Thank you Troy Cummings for bringing these books to my sons!

Son loves this series and this #7 Flurry of the Snombies did not disappoint him. As soon as he finished reading it he wanted to place an advance order for the 8th book in the series coming out in June.
