Customer Reviews

This is the 4th volume of part 2 - Battle Tendency, and it concludes the arc, so if you are considering buying this, then I think it is safe to assume that you are a fan of JoJo. This is the largest JoJonium release to date in terms of the number of pages, and the quality is on par with the other releases. The new cover and artwork is beautiful which is to be expected from Araki. Overall, the JoJonium releases are the definitive editions of the manga, and I would recommend them to any fan. One problem with these JoJoniums is that the covers, while beautiful, are a glossy black that smudges and stains easily. I would recommend taking some precautionary measures (like laying the book on a table while reading) if you intend to read this and don't want the cover getting all smudgy. Otherwise great release.

Great manga, and a very good book. Hardcover binding is great too.

My son loved it & as long as he's happy, I'm happy!
