Customer Reviews

For whatever reason, our grandsons, now 10 and 13, have always gotten a buzz from reading almanacs, and the versions published for kids provide the right blend of illustrations, age-appropriate verbiage and interest factor. We have developed a kind of Trivial Pursuit Q&A game from the book and use it as a good winding down game at the end of the day when the boys stay with us ("Okay, where's the tallest building in the world?"). This is the second of these books we have purchased and we heartily endorse them.

vert pleased with the conditon of the book; disappointed in the length of time it took for the book to be delivered and found it difficult to track from the sender.

My granddaughter uses this book and LOVES it. She is in the 2nd gr now and generally doesn't like to read but this is different!!
