The Duke's Ugly Duckling: Regency Romance (Regency Fairytale Romance Book 2)

Synopsis

Florence Knightley is shamelessly rejected by her own mother. She despises her daughter's blemished looks. Such an ugly duckling is a shame to the house of Knightley among society's more refined peers. When the young woman turns eighteen her father decides it is high time his daughter marry, but who would even consider such an imperfect girl? It is a troubling question. A passing reference in Regency court to the reclusive Lord Albert Errol, Duke of Whittington, provides a solution. Stewart Knightley approaches the mysterious Duke with an offer to restore his lost fortunes. In return he will take the hand of Florence. Thus begins an unlikely journey that will transform the duckling to a swan. In this original Regency fairytale the classic parable of the Ugly Duckling takes a decidedly romantic Regency turn.

Customer Reviews

In the beginning I wanted to cry as no child should be rejected. Her father's love with that of her nanny made her a beautiful person. Then a sad man married her. Her faith and insight saved him. They fell in love and the Ugly Duckling did turn into a beautiful Swan. You just have to take time to read this novella. This is a new author for me, but I am going to look up her other books, knowing they shall be equally as good as The Duke's Ugly Duckling.

A wonderful read. Great and believably well developed characters that tug at your heart strings. Plot and story line totally believable. I am not including character details or discussing them or the plot, I do not care for reviews that give out too much info. I am an avid reader (have been reading regency since a young teen) and would recommend this title. Thank you, Charity McColl.

Florence Knightley was rejected at birth by her mother because she was born with a deformity. She was hidden away and never saw her mother. Albert Errol was a surgeon whose hand was gravely injured in the war. While he was recovering, his wife died and his estate was looted and left to ruin.
