Islamic Manners Activity Book

Synopsis

Learn a selection of Arabic prayers and expressions while having fun with sixty-plus pages of imaginative activities that will introduce young children to a range of practices from Islam and the Muslim world. The Islamic Manners Activity Book includes puzzles, word searches, coloring pages, connect-the-dots, and matching cards that will occupy and entertain children for hours. Fatima Dâ™Oyen was born in New York in 1960 and embraced Islam in 1979. An author of several books for Muslim children, she has also been active in Islamic education since 1983 in the United States and Europe in a variety of capacities. Currently she is director of Manara Education, a UK-based social enterprise promoting holistic approaches to Islamic education and parenting.

Customer Reviews

Purchased this as a general activity book to use with a Pre-K/KG playgroup. Quality of illustrations are not exemplary but average compared with most other Islamic books for kids (unfortunately). Activities are ok but somewhat repetitive - most are geared towards older kids but with some explanation and guidance/supervision, they can work for younger children (though it won't hold their attention long). A big pet peeve - the improper use of "Jazakallah" and "barakallah" instead of the correct phrasing of "Jazakum Allahu Khair" and "Barak Allah feekum." While an unfortunate habit in some parts of the non-Arabic-speaking Muslim world, that is still no excuse for using incorrect

Islamic terms. "Jazakallah" and "barakallah" are technically speaking, incomplete sentences, and roughly translate to "Allah give" and "Allah bless" instead of the appropriate "Allah give you good" and "Allah bless you," respectively. This seemingly small but important oversight shows that the author did not take the time or effort to research about the correct terminology. Given that this is an Islamic book geared towards educating and reinforcing Islamic concepts with children, it is a major fail and a source of misinformation for both children and non-Arabic speakers. There are several English spelling errors as well throughout the book - all things considered, save your money and use a different book.

AGAIN- I reverted less than two years ago and it has been confusing for my children then ranging 1-12 and so finding these books they have been useful this one is one of my now 6, 9, 12 and 14 year olds favorites it gives them pride in their Muslim identity and helps them learn the vocabulary of their new world as well.

This a very good book. It took 2-3 weeks fir it to arrive but was worth waiting for. The various activities attract children. My son is 4.5 years and he enjoyed the mazes. He as well follows some of the islamic manners such as sitting at the table and eating rather than eating while watching tv. I do recommend it.

Wish there was more books like it

This activity book is very accurate and helpful to anyone not just kids. I use it along with my daughter as we learn Arabic and about Islam.

Excellent activity book made of high quality material. Age appropriate for elementary school children. I highly recommend!

Well written book with fruitful lessons all throughout. Makes learning a very fun experience. My sons love the book.

Amazing book a must buy for all Muslim kids.Suggested for kids 4 to 8 years.
