Customer Reviews

These flash cards are great. My child finds the "Cheat sheet" is helpful when doing other math/money exercises. You may have separate the cards for different levels of learning as your child progresses through the year with counting money. So don't be disappointed if your child can't add all the money cards the first time around.

Love them

I have a ball with my son playing with these Time and Money flash cards. We play several games and he enjoys them every time.

Grandson loved the cards.
