We Can Do Mitzvos From Aleph To Tav

Synopsis

For Jewish pre-schoolers, two basic building-blocks of learning are the Hebrew alphabet and the concept of a mitzvah (commandment), and both come together to great effect in the enchanting text We Can Do Mitzvos From Aleph to Tav. Every colorful page introduces a new letter, bright and bold, along with a mitzvah which begins with that letter be it visiting the sick, acts of kindness, having manners, keeping clean, hosting guests, giving charity, and more. Endearing, evocative illustrations combine with simple text to offer youngsters a lively introduction not only to the Hebrew alphabet but to a rich array of noble, uplifting concepts that show children what Jewish living is all about.

Customer Reviews

again, i was looking for specificity in my books to teach middos (values/character traits) to my kids. (i homeschool.) this is excellent and a good idea book for doing tikkun olam, too. simple, easy to read, good illustrations, and met a basic need for our family. Thumbs UP!

love it

My 2 year old loves the illustrations and always asks to read this book! It is both charmingly illustrated and very well written.
